1 Read and write the professions.

1 I sing really well.

2 If you see a fire, call me!

3 I keep your teeth healthy.

4 They pay me to play football.

5 I live in the country and I have lots of animals.

6 I drive people from place to place in a car.

2 Listen and guess what Nick’s family does.

My mum works as a...

My dad’s a...

My sister works as a...

3 Read and circle the correct person.

1 I’ve never cooked for many people.

2 She’s defended two people this week.

3 He’s been at the theatre all day.

4 I’ve designed a luxurious chalet for my parents.
1 Match the sentences.
1 I work every weekend...
2 There are different types of jobs...
3 Be careful with those polar bears!
4 We’re lost!
5 I love my job because...
   a but mine is the safest.
   b I only work three days a week.
   c Let’s find a safe place. d at the hospital.
   e They’re dangerous!

2 Dictation.
1 __________________________
2 __________________________
3 __________________________
4 __________________________
5 __________________________

3 Correct the spelling and grammar mistakes.

My job is danjerous, but it can be fun.
I’m a firefihter. I help everyone.
What’s your jobs? Do you like to cooks?
You could be a cheff and write a cook book.
A dentis, a judge, a teacher or an aktor.
There are so many job that you can go for.

1 dangerous
2 __________________________
3 __________________________
4 __________________________
5 __________________________
6 __________________________
7 __________________________
8 __________________________

4 Circle the words with the /dʒ/ sound. Then listen and check.

- church
- village
- page
- witch
- jog
- torch
- jar
- touch
- screen
Choose the correct option. Then listen and check.

1 I (will go) I’ll go to the architect tomorrow.
   I will go to the architect tomorrow.

2 He will / won’t have time to see the vet because he has lots of chores to do.

3 It’s very late and I think you will / won’t finish it before half past seven.

4 He will / won’t be home from work until seven o’clock.

5 They had an accident yesterday. They will / won’t be here tomorrow for the party.

Read and fill in the blanks with will or won’t. Then listen and check.

Alexa, (1) ___________ you see Tony later today?

No, I (2) ___________. Why?

Well, because I need to go to the city and my car isn’t working. (3) I ___________ need to ask him to take me.

Why will you need to go to the city tomorrow?

Because I have a patient, a lovely dalmatian there and his owner (4) ___________ be able to come to Happyville. She hasn’t got a car.

You’re a very good vet. Your patient and his owner (5) ___________ be so happy with you.

They won’t be because I couldn’t go to see them the last time and they had to take 3 different buses to get here.

Well, well! They (6) ___________ definitely be happy in that case!

Write about your ideal profession.
• What will you do in the future?
• What will you study?
• What will you be when you’re older?
1 Choose and write the correct option. Then listen and check.

1 She isn’t here, ___is she___?
   a she is         b she isn’t         c is she 2 They’re happy today, ____________?
   a they aren’t    b aren’t they     c are they 3 He went to the hotel yesterday, ____________?
   a he didn’t     b did he          c didn’t he 4 We’ve never been to France, ____________?
   a haven’t we    b have we         c had we 5 He’ll be there later, ____________?
   a won’t he      b will he         c he will

2 Change the sentences from the affirmative to the negative with question tags.

1 She went to the garden, didn’t she?
   She didn’t go to the garden, did she?
2 He’ll do the washing up, won’t he?
2 He won’t do the washing up, will he?
3 We took out the rubbish, didn’t we?
3 We won’t take out the rubbish, will we?
4 They’ll come to the party, won’t they?
4 They won’t come to the party, will they?
5 You haven’t visited your grandparents this week, have you?
5 You’ve visited your grandparents this week, haven’t you?

3 Read and create a brainstorm from the text.

Yessy the lawyer, and I will tell everyone that the cook took the magic spoon unless someone tells the truth. Then the cook will go to prison unless someone talks to me about what really happened. Nobody in Happyville will be happy unless everyone tells the truth.

Remember to use question tags to confirm if the person who you’re speaking to agrees with you.
Read and put the story in order. Then listen and check.

1. Hurry! We need to go to that fire! Fusy, follow me! We'll stop this fire.
   I'll run really fast to the house to see what the problem is.
2. What's that? What's the matter, Asky?
3. Look! There's smoke there! Help! Help me!
   Please, will you help me? Look at my house. There's a fire!!!
4. It's OK little cat! You're OK. Shhhh! You'll be fine in a few minutes.
   Oh thank you! You saved my cat! I'll always remember this day.
5. What happened here? Is everyone safe? Who stopped the fire? That's your cat, isn't it?
   Oh, Fusy stopped the fire and Yessy saved my cat. Everyone's safe and happy thanks to them!
6. Stand back everyone. This is a dangerous situation.
   I'll help you with the cat, Yessy.
   Here... pssst! Come on. Don't be scared little one. I'm a vet and I can help you.

Read again and answer the questions.

1. Who's dressed up as a vet?

2. Who'll run to the house first?

3. Does Yessy save the cat?

4. Why is the little boy happy?

5. Why is everyone safe and happy?
1 Read the text in the Pupil’s Book. True or false? Then correct the false information.

1 Firefighters stop crime and police officers stop fires.
   Firefighters stop fires and police officers stop crime.
   False

2 The New York Fire Department is famous for being safe.
   ____________________________

3 In Canada there are famous firefighters called the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.
   ____________________________

4 They ride donkeys in cities and towns all over Canada.
   ____________________________

5 In cold parts of Canada they travel by sled with dogs.
   ____________________________

2 Compare with your culture.

- Do you have firefighters and police officers in your country?
- Are there different types of police officers?
- How do they travel?
- Do they represent the country and the Prime Minister?

   ____________________________
   ____________________________
   ____________________________
   ____________________________

3 What questions would you like to ask a police officer about his/her job? Write a list of questions.

   ____________________________
   ____________________________
   ____________________________
   ____________________________
1 Listen and fill in the blanks.

Rock 'n' Roll started in the (1)____________________ and surprised lots of people. People thought the music was (2)____________________ and they didn’t understand new rock stars like (3)____________________, or groups like The Rolling Stones. But young people (4)____________________ this new music.

Young people liked it because it wasn’t traditional and it helped them (5)____________________ themselves. They went to (6)____________________ and sang loudly and danced crazily. This music really changed their lives.

These days, the world of music has changed even more. There are so many types of music that people listen to and so many ways to (7)____________________ it. You can listen to classical music, Rock ’n’ Roll or (8)____________________ in concerts, on the radio or on MP3 players.

Music is a language because it helps people express themselves just like we express ourselves in either Spanish or English.

2 Complete the fact card.

Name:

Started:

Famous Rock ’n’ Roll artists:

General opinion of this music:

Advantages of Rock ’n’ Roll for young people:

3 Web quest.

1 What types of music influenced Rock ’n’ Roll?

2 What city did Rock ’n’ Roll start in?

3 Name two other famous Rock ’n’ Roll bands from the UK.

4 Who wrote the songs “Let It Be” and “Yellow Submarine”?

1 Look and write sentences using will.

1 The firefighter will stop the fire.
2 ________________________________
3 ________________________________
4 ________________________________
5 ________________________________

2 Listen and complete the sentences. Then say who said each sentence.

Mum: I don't know... He's very good at football. Maybe
(1) __________________ be a famous
(2) ________________________________.

I think he'll be an (3) __________________.

He'll be a famous (4) __________________. He's such a good singer, (5) __________________?

(______): (...) but I don't think he'll be a (6) __________________.

Maybe he'll be a (7) __________________.

3 Match the sentences with the question tags.

1 She’s an excellent dentist, ... a will she?
2 Jonathan was a brave firefighter, ... b hasn’t he?
3 Justin’s gone to Germany today, ... c wasn’t he?
4 She hasn’t played volleyball before, ... d isn’t she?
5 She won’t be here until eight o’clock, ... e has she?